

UNTI VINEYARDS

Showcasing 3 wines from Unti Vineyards in Dry Creek Valley

If you are a fan of Italian or Rhone varietals that are well-balanced, complex and excellent food wines, you'll love the wines from Unti. According to Mick Unti, Dry Creek Valley's climate is ideal for growing classic Mediterranean red grape varieties such as Barbera and Syrah. The Untis began using biodynamic vineyard practices designed to make the vines more self-sustaining and adaptive to their natural environment.

Taste all 3 wines for $23

Unti "Cuvee Blanc", Dry Creek Vineyards, '07 ☾ (53% Grenache Blanc, 24% Vermentino and 23% Picpoul) — Refreshing medium-bodied, Rhone-style blend, elegant balance of fruit and acidity. This is the first white wine from this Dry Creek Valley Estate.

$7 taste/$13.5 gls/$54 btl

Unti Barbera, Dry Creek Vineyards, '07 ☾ — a modern-styled Barbera, dusty and rustic on the nose yet finishing with smooth, subtle fruit, a well-balanced wine, uplifting and can be easily paired with fish.

$7 taste/ $13.5 gls/$54 btl

Unti Benchland Syrah, Dry Creek Vineyards, '05 ☾ — a crowd pleaser with dark fruit, hints of savory meat, a touch of oak and balanced structure with a full body.

$7.5 taste/$15 gls/$60 btl
